

Doctor of Philosophy in Curriculum and Instruction Urban Education: ADVANCED STANDING

Program Director: Dr. Tina Heafner (theafner@charlotte.edu)
Concentration Coordinator: Dr. Chance Lewis (clewis64@charlotte.edu)

Course #	Title	Credit Hours
Urban Foundations Core Courses 18
EDCI 8620	Pro-Seminar in Curriculum, Instruction, and Educational Leadership	3
EDCI 8180	Critical Issues and Perspectives in Urban Education	3
EDCI 8182	Power, Privilege and Education	3
EDCI 8184	Social Theory and Education	3
EDCI 8186	Globalization, Urbanization and Urban Schools	3
EDCI 8314	Urban Education Reform	3
Research Me	ethodology Courses	12
Required Con	urses:	6
RSCH 8110	Descriptive and Inferential Statistics	3
RSCH 8210	Applied Research Methods	3
GRAD 8990	Academic Integrity	0
All Ph.D. students are required to register for GRAD 8990 Academic Integrity in the first semester.
Choose two	or more of the following:	6
Program Advisor consultation is required to enroll in the below courses. Selection of 2 research course electives with approval of concentration advisor. Courses should be specific to either quantitative or qualitative research methods, depending on dissertation plans.
EDCI 8121	Applied Research Methods in the Teaching of English	3
RSCH 8111	Qualitative Research Methods	3
RSCH 8112	Survey Research Methods	3
RSCH 8113	Single-Case Research	3
RSCH 8120	Advanced Statistics	3
RSCH 8121	Advanced Qualitative Methods	3
RSCH 8131	Interviewing as Qualitative Inquiry	3
RSCH 8140	Multivariate Statistics	3
RSCH 8150	Structural Equation Modeling	3
RSCH 8160	Hierarchical Linear Models in Education	3
RSCH 8196	Program Evaluation Methods	3

RSCH 8197	Design and Analysis of Experimental and Quasi-Experimental Evaluations	3
RSCH 8220	Educational and Psychological Measurement	3
RSCH 8230	Theory and Applications of Measurement	3
RSCH 8890	Special Topics in Research	3
Four courses are required but not necessarily sufficient. Additional courses not listed require program director approval.
Urban Educa	tion Specialization Courses	9
Select 3 courses from the following electives. Program Advisor consultation is required to enroll.
EDCI 8061	Topics in Urban Educational Research	3
EDCI 8070	Topics in Urban Educational Leadership	3
EDCI 8075	Topics in Urban-Regional Education	3
EDCI 8133	Multiculturalism and Children's Literature	3
EDCI 8134	Early Black American Literature	3
EDCI 8139	Perspectives in African American Literature	3
EDCI 8300	Social Stratification and Urban Schools and Communities	3
EDCI 8310	Transformative Black Education	3
EDCI 8311	Critical Readings in Urban Education Research	3
EDCI 8312	Urban Schooling, Curriculum, and Pedagogy	3
EDCI 8320	Social Deviance, Delinquency, and Urban Education	3
EDCI 8330	History of Urbanization and Its Impact on Schooling	3
EDCI 8460	Internship in Urban Education	3
EDCI 8660	Readings in Urban Education Research	3
EDCI 8682	Seminar in Professional and Grant Writing	3
EDCI 8880	Independent Study in Urban Education	3
For Advanced Standing, courses taken at the master's 5000 or 6000-level cannot be repeated

For Advanced Standing, courses taken at the master's 5000 or 6000-level cannot be repeated at the doctoral 8000-level to meet concentration requirements. No transfer credit hours are allowed in Advanced Standing. Students may enroll in graduate-level credit outside of the above list with approval of the program director.

Required for Dissertation
EDCI 8699* Dissertation Proposal Seminar	3
EDCI 8999 Dissertation Research	6

*Contact the Program Director for approval to enroll in EDCI 8699 and EDCI 8999. To be taken after successful completion of the comprehensive examinations, appointment of the dissertation committee, and pre-proposal meeting with committee members.

<sup>**</sup>Students must be admitted to candidacy to enroll in EDCI 8999. A minimum of 6 credit hours of dissertation research is required. Additional hours may be taken to complete the dissertation process.

Advanced Standing Minimum Total Credits

48

A minimum of 48 hours is required but not necessarily sufficient. Additional courses may be recommended by Program Advisor for the Ph.D. in Curriculum and Instruction.